3

Combustion and Flame

Learning Competencies

By the end of the lesson, the students will be able to

- Identify combustible and non-combustible substances in the surroundings.
- Extinguish a fire by removing one of three conditions essential for combustion.
- Identify the different zones of the candle flame.
- Identify a good fuel keeping the characteristics of good fuel in mind.
- Understand harmful products obtained on burning fuels.

Affordable and Clean Energy | Industry, Innovation and Infrastructure

Overview of the Lesson

