

Q1. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

Last Sunday, the residents of Green Park Colony gathered to plant trees in their neighborhood. The event was organized by the colony's youth club. Children, parents, and even grandparents joined hands to make their surroundings greener. Some dug pits, while others planted saplings of neem, peepal, and mango trees. A few volunteers watered the plants and put protective fences around them.

By the end of the day, more than 200 trees were planted. Everyone felt proud and happy. The club president reminded the people that planting trees was only the first step. Taking care of the every day was the real responsibility.
