

33. How is Petroleum formed?
- By the decomposition of dead plants on land
 - By the decomposition of dead sea organisms under high temperature and pressure
 - By the melting of rocks inside the Earth
 - By the burning of coal

34. Name the rock shown below? It is a type of which rock?

- Pumice, Igneous rock
- Limestone, sedimentary rock
- Quartzite, Metamorphic rock
- Granite, sedimentary rock

35. Why does rock shown above in the picture float on the water surface?

- It absorbs a large amount of water, make it to float.
- It has many tiny air-filled pores, making it light weight to float.
- It is made entirely of air
- It dissolves in water

36. Which of the following is not a petroleum product?

- Diesel
- petroleum gas
- coal
- paraffin wax

37. How is granite formed from Lava?

- by fast cooling of the lava.
- by slow cooling of lava
- Change in sedimentary rock