

Class 5th Monday test

Questions

1. Look at the structure of the human skull. Why is the human skull so hard and strong?

- A) To help us digest food faster
- B) To protect the delicate brain inside
- C) To help us hear sound clearly
- D) To absorb water for the head

2. How does the lower jaw help us eat and speak?

- A) By staying completely fixed and still
- B) By moving up and down to open the mouth
- C) By bending in the middle like a rope
- D) By growing longer every time we talk

3. Tendons help in attaching

- A) Bone to bone
- B) Skull bones
- C) Muscle to bones
- D) Muscle to muscle

4. Why is the backbone made of many small bones instead of one long straight bone?

- A) So that we can bend, twist, and turn our back
- B) To make the body heavier
- C) So that the body breaks easily when running
- D) To help us breathe faster

5. How does a hinge joint work at the elbow?

- A) It allows movement in all 360-degree directions
- B) It allows movement back and forth in one direction like a door
- C) It prevents any movement at all
- D) It allows bones to slide over each other sideways

Edit

Fit to Screen

Find and Replace

Tools

Edit on PC