

Seven Star School, Bani

Class : 6th. Sub : Eng

Monday Test. M.M:25

Section -A (Reading)

Q1. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

The Amazon Rainforest is the largest tropical rainforest in the world. It covers r Brazil and extends into several other South American countries. This massive f called the "lungs of the planet" because its millions of trees produce a vast am earth's oxygen.

The Amazon is home to an incredible variety of wildlife. High up in the forest ca macaws fly between branches, while lazy sloths hang upside down from trees. floor, jaguars stealthily hunt for food near winding rivers. The river itself is filled creatures, including pink river dolphins and fierce piranhas.

Unfortunately, this beautiful ecosystem is in danger. Large areas of the forest a down every year to create farmland and gather timber. This destruction, known threatens the homes of countless animals and changes the weather patterns o Protecting the Amazon is essential for the future of Earth.

Questions (1 Mark Each)

A. Tick the Correct Option

1. Why is the Amazon Rainforest called the "lungs of the planet"?

- A) It is shaped like a pair of lungs.
- B) It produces a huge amount of the Earth's oxygen.
- C) It is the oldest forest in the world.
- D) It has a very cold climate.

2. Which animal can be found hunting near the rivers on the forest floor? A) Sloth

- B) Macaw
- C) Jaguar
- D) Pink dolphin

B. Fill in the Blanks;

3. Amazon Rainforest covers more than half of the country of _____.

4. The process of cutting down large areas of trees for farmland or timber is cal _____.

C. Short Answer Questions

5. Name two unique creatures that live inside the Amazon River itself.

6. According to the text, what are two reasons why humans are cutting down th

D. Vocabulary & Grammar

7. Find a word in the second paragraph that means "in a cautious, secret, or qui not to be seen or heard".

8. Read the sentence: